

RULES OF APPELLATION

- The appeal must be written and signed by the applicant directly or by a person who has power of attorney from his/her part.
- A fee of 160 Euros has to be paid (even by those who were initially exempted from the consular fee for processing the visa application).
- The decision on the appeal will be taken by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary, within 15 days, a term which is not subject to urgency.
- During the review process, the competent authority has the right to request additional documents and the applicant may be invited to the Embassy for a personal interview.